

The number one legal mistake made by entrepreneurs is thinking that legal issues can be addressed later.

POE is delighted to offer corporate legal advice and services free of charge to its community of military entrepreneurs, all across Canada.

Get help navigating the complexities of conducting business in Canada:

General legal information on business structure

Advice on brand protection and intellectual property issues

To access these free services, go to:

Advice on incorporation and partnership agreements

Information on insurance and by-law implications

princesoperationentrepreneur.ca/OngoingSupport and request an appointment with a lawyer. You will receive a confirmation email, with next steps and appointment information.

Review of commercial leases, contracts and employment agreements

Legal advice on Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL)

to ProBono Ontario and Bennett Jones LLP for making this opportunity possible.

Bennett Jones

Prince's Operation Entrepreneur (POE) helps transitioning members and veterans who want to become entrepreneurs. POE offers the education, tools and resources needed to build confidence, develop networks and start successful businesses.

Founding Partners

Sponsors

Supporters + Donors

